Go! Steady, go! It's up to you Go! Cheer up! Go! I've decided to go!

I stretch, basking in the morning light With my toothbrush in my mouth, she comes to my mind

I'd like to see her again today... I wonder how she's doing? I suddenly rush to get out the door

I run straight ahead, Trying to catch up to her My hand touches her shoulder And that's when today begins

Go! Steady, go! Its up to you Go! Cheer up! Go! I've decided to go!

She's on my mind but I don't show it Suddenly I can't turn my eyes away

What's she thinking as she makes that face? I can't hide my feelings I want to know

In my heart
But your smile
Makes it whole again today

Go! Steady, go! It's up to you Go! Cheer up! Go! I've decided to go!

If I faced her And told her my feelings Would she face me And accept them?

Go! Steady, go! It's up to you Go! Cheer up! Go! I've decided to you! A. A. Ai!

Life that transcends moments is carved into every 1, 2 seconds that pass by!

When I learned that, it changed! My "now"!

3 minutes we walk together through the hallway

4 minutes we laugh, soda in hand

The time the two of us spend together shines

As our voices, our gazes cross

How do you see me?

It's only "time" that we're together for

5 disappointing seconds, only a greeting

6 minutes on the phone when you promised you'd call

Just saying each other's names

Makes my heart spin and soar

I wonder if this feeling is the one they talk about?

That bothersome, universal human feeling

A. A. Ai! The O seconds when I found you

That's when I learned the meaning of time

A. A. Ai! Time merely flows on It won't carry your feelings

I'l, shout it out loud, loud

I hope it reaches you: I love you!

7 minutes chatting about ice cream

8 minutes on the bus, our shoulders touching

I'm thankful for the curves of the road

Hove having your warmth next to me

The past and the future, the present of course too

I want you to be there for all of them

9 minutes spent staring at your face
The time we spend together goes on and on Let's walk through these days together as they tick by Let's be together in as many moments as we can

I have the power to get through this time In my heart, always

A. A. Ai! The O seconds when I found you That's when I learned the meaning of time A. A. Ai! Time merely flows on It won't carry your feelings

On the count of 10, I'll come to you!

In the 0 seconds when I found you That's when I learned the meaning of time A. A. Ai! Spend these passing moments And your life with me

Together ticking by, we walk I love you

Tracklist & Lyrics

A New Day Lyrics, vocals: Rita Composition: Blueberry&Yogurt

I thought I would always be the same
I'd given up, thinking I could never change

I was afraid of moving forward

When I'm (be together)
Holding your hand (go with me)
I feel like the holes in my heart are filling in
I bet this is (be together)
I'm sure this is (go with you)
A sign tomorrow will change
And I'll meet it without fear

Hearts on different paths, never meeting each other Bringing them together changing their trajectory

Don't hesitate to move forward

I'll take your hand (I'm with you)
And go with you (if you say so)
My sepia days are slowly gaining back their color
The blue of the sky (You'll with me)
Dancing flower petals (If I say so)
My days are being painted in your bright colors

That outline, fuzzy and faint Comes into focus in the light

Place your hand (be together)
Softly in mine (go with me)
And let's slowly get back our color

I bet this is (be together)
I'm sure this is (go with you)
A sign we'll change tomorrow
Let's go forward together from now on

I'd thought they would always be the same But I'll walk into a new day with you
